How will I charge you for the service?

I provide clients with a choice of paying a fee-for-service or allowing me to receive commission from the insurance provider that is recommended. In such cases my hourly rate may be reduced or waived for the Initial advice and the Implementation fee. A combination of these methods of payment for my services will also be considered. I can provide you with a fee estimate after assessing your requirements. I do not charge or receive commission on managed investment schemes.

Service Fees	Morgan Hayward
Hourly rate (or part thereof)	$280 +gst
Advice and/or implementation fee (depending on complexity)	Up to $11,000
Ongoing retainer Based on service package, billed through agreed method	Between: $1320 inc gst and $12000 inc gst Per annum

Do I receive remuneration, commission, fees or other benefits in relation to providing the financial services or assistance to you and how is that commission calculated?

1. All fees are paid initially to Shartru Wealth Management (Licensee). Shartru Wealth passes on 100% of all fees received to Vault. I am a salaried employee of Vault Financial Group.
2. Where a life insurance company product has been recommended the issuer of the product may pay Shartru Wealth a commission which ranges between 30% and 60% of your first year's premium plus GST. E.g. If your first year's premium is $500 and the initial commission is 60% Shartru Wealth will receive $300.
3. The issuer of the insurance product may also pay Shartru Wealth an ongoing commission which can vary depending on the product. It ranges between 8% and 30.25% of your second and subsequent years premium. If your premium for the second and subsequent years is $500 and the ongoing commission is 30% Shartru Wealth will receive $150 per annum.
4. I receive a salary from Vault. The amount of this salary is NOT solely dependent upon the amount of revenue generated by me.
5. When share trading services are utilised to deal in shares, I may receive between $33 and 90% of the brokerage amount paid to the stockbroker. For example, if brokerage for a share trade is $77, I will receive $49.05
6. Neither Vault nor I receive conflicted remuneration.
7. The exact amounts of any fees, commissions, bonuses or other incentives received by me and the licensee will be included in a Statement of Advice that we will provide to you. That will include any referral fees that we receive or pay to other parties as well.

Do I have any Referral Arrangements in place or potential Conflicts of Interest?

1. Vault and I have referral arrangements in place with a range of specialist businesses as this allows me to refer you to other professionals in areas that I do not practice in.
2. If you have been referred to us by another party, we may pay the other party, a referral fee of up to 20% of any fee or commission generated from those referrals.
3. If we refer you to another party, I am not permitted to receive a referral fee however Vault may receive up to 20% of any fee or commission generated from that referrals*. (*please note that they may be a related party to Vault and me or Shartru Wealth).
4. I am not permitted to act on your behalf if I have a conflict of interest or duty to you.
5. Vault and I do not own shares in Shartru IM and Shartru Wealth.
6. Vault and I are related party/s to Vault Accountants who undertakes SMSF Administration and Accounting work.

Important Information

This Financial Services Guide (“FSG”) is intended to inform you of certain basic matters relating to our relationship, prior to us providing you with a financial service. The matters covered by the FSG include, who we are, how we can be contacted, what services we are authorised to provide to you, how we (and any other relevant parties) are remunerated, details of any potential conflicts of interest, and details of our internal and external dispute resolution procedures, along with how you can access them.

Shartru Wealth advisers are authorised in areas they are qualified in, as such they may provide general or personal advice to you. In the event you receive general advice from your adviser, you will not receive a Statement or Record of Advice.

Where you first receive personal advice (advice that takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs) you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice. The Statement of Advice will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about fees, commissions and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice. If our representative provides further advice to you and your personal circumstances have not significantly changed, and that further advice is related to the advice we provided to you in a previous Statement of Advice and we do not give that further advice to you in writing, you may request a copy of the record of that further advice at any time up to 7 years from the date our representative gave the further advice to you.

You can request the record of the advice by contacting the representative or us in writing or by telephone or by email. In the event we make a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities), we must also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product, which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.

It is intended that this FSG should assist you in determining whether to use any of the services described in this document. You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will provide you (whether general or personal), and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services.

When you receive advice

Your adviser is an Authorised Representative of Shartru Wealth Management Pty Ltd. They may also operate under a Corporate Authorised Representative; those details are in the Supplementary Financial Services Guide (SFSG). Shartru Wealth and your adviser are responsible for the financial services provided to you.

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions, for example by telephone, email or other means.

Your adviser maintains a record of your personal profile, which includes details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. They also maintain records of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to examine your file, we ask that you make a request in writing and allow up to fourteen (14) working days for the information to be forwarded. There may be a charge for this. Shartru Wealth is committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of our privacy policy can be viewed at www.shartruwealth.com.au.
